

Market Range Detail - Code Enforcement Officer

Effective Date

September 24, 2007

Market Range Title Description

Positions in this market range title investigate zoning, building code, and ordinance complaints and violations in un-incorporated areas of Maricopa County. Incumbents are responsible for traveling to, and conducting inspections on, violation sites and establishing contact with violators and complainants to discuss the violation. Incumbents document site inspections through photographs and measurements, and, if necessary file criminal complaints and appear as witnesses for the State. Code Enforcement Officers differ from Inspectors in that the positions are responsible for investigating alleged violations on existing properties as opposed to inspecting sites under construction.
